Welcome Back, Everyone!

After a long summer, it's good to return to a school where the students are excited and invigorated. That's Eagle View! Our playground is buzzing with the news of the summer and the excitement of kids renewing friendships that may have been 'placed on pause' over the summer break. It's really nice to see staff return as well, and although there are many familiar faces, I would like to take the time to tell you of a few changes:

- Mr. Markides is away on leave for the next little while; Mr. MacLean is the Acting Principal in his absence.
- Mrs. MacDonald will teach Grade 1/2 in the mornings, and will be the Acting Vice Principal.
- Mrs. Marrayllynn Randall is the Grade 1/2 teacher replacing Mrs. MacDonald in the afternoons. She also sees other Primary classes for Physical Education, Art, Computers and other subjects.

Due to a large number of unforeseen Kindergarten registrations in late August and early September, we have had to reorganize classes. This reorganization has had an impact on virtually all classes, and we did try to satisfy all of our student needs. Many parents were surprised to find out about these changes, and I hope to satisfy everyone who may have a concern. About 40 students from all grades have a new classroom this week. Please call the office and ask to speak to Mr. MacLean if you have any questions or concerns.

Here is the new organization of classes:

Kindergarten – Mrs. Sedola

Kindergarten – Mrs. Williamson

Kindergarten/Grade 1 – Mrs. Soltau-Heller

Grade 1 – Mrs. Brown

Grade 1/2 – Mrs. MacDonald/Mrs. Randall

Grade 2/3 – Miss Poynter

Grade 3 – Mrs. Campbell

Grade 3/4 – Mr. Smith

Grade 4 – Mrs. Miller

Grade 5 – Mr. Murray

Grade 5/6 – Mr. Barfoot

Grade 6 – Mr. Bunyan

Grade 7 – Mr. Starr

Breakfast Club – Help Wanted!

We have a very busy Breakfast Club in the mornings. In order to keep the program running we are looking for a few parents that can come one day a week for an hour (8:15am-9:15am). Please call the school if you are interested.

“Mug and Muffin” morning normally held at this time of the year has been cancelled.
